GOURMET RESTAURANTS

You don't just go to a gourmet restaurant to dine.

The high quality of the ingredients, the sophisticated presentation and the experimentation behind each dish presented transcend the simple act of eating, transforming the kitchen into a very high creative moment and a real work of art.

An experience that involves senses, such as taste, sight and smell.

Therefore the "duty" to create an equally elegant environment around such refined proposals is, in this case, perhaps even more important than elsewhere.

We therefore selected sober yet voluptuous and enveloping seats, upholstered in precious leathers or velvets in bold colors and all combined with a table that, at its utmost simplicity, it combines two touches of metal giving it great personality

And last but not least OPTIONAL, a dining table designed for the Hospitality sector, customizable with additional features
